*Hail Mary, full of grace. Hail, Hail, the Lord. The Lord is with thee.
Blessed art thou among women, and blessed, blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Hail Mary!
Hail Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Hail Mary.*

Scripture Reading

John 14:2-6

Rev. Craig Gaither

In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know. Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way? Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

For the word of the Lord –
Thanks be to God.

Scripture Reading

Psalms 23

Rev. Dr. Kelly T. Grooms

*Please stand, as you are able to read the Psalm responsively.
The leader reads the plain text and the congregation reads the bold text.*

The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:
he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

You may be seated.

Scripture Reading

Romans 8:35-39

Rev. Bobby Fletcher

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter. Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

For the word of the Lord –
Thanks be to God.
